

National Monuments Service World Heritage Scholarship Programme

The National Monuments Service is delighted to invite applicants for its World Heritage Scholarship Programme at University College Dublin (UCD)

About the scholarship?

The National Monuments Service World Heritage Scholarship programme has been established in support of the newly proposed National Strategy for World Heritage. A goal of the Strategy is to advocate for World Heritage nationally and internationally and a principle means of doing this is through education and capacity building initiatives. Ireland's National Monuments Service is funding scholarships for citizens of Small Island Developing States (SIDS) and EU citizen's resident in Ireland to study on UCD's World Heritage programme.

Rialtas na hÉireann
Government of Ireland

NMS

Seirbhís Séadchomharthaí
Náisiúnta
National Monuments Service

How are the Scholarships allocated?

1. Up to five scholarships will be awarded to applicants from Small Island Developing States (SIDS) to take the online, part-time MSc in World Heritage Conservation (F091).
2. Up to three scholarships will be awarded to applicants resident in Ireland (EU and Irish citizens) to take the online, part-time MSc in World Heritage Conservation (F091).
3. One scholarship to an applicant resident in Ireland (EU and Irish citizens) to take the on-campus, full or part-time (F098 or F099) MSc in World Heritage Management and Conservation.

What costs does the Scholarship cover?

The scholarship will cover the cost of the university fees.

Submission guidelines

Closing date for Scholarship applications is 08 August 2024.

If you have any queries, please contact masters.archaeology@ucd.ie

Full application details are available on the UCD School of Archaeology website:

<https://bit.ly/4eJs2KL>

Please note

1. The scholarships are intended to support students undertaking one of UCD's World Heritage Masters programmes. As such, applicants should be in receipt of a full or a conditional offer at the time of their scholarship application.
2. An NMS WH Scholarship cannot be held in conjunction with another Fee Scholarship. It is the responsibility of the applicant to advise the School of Archaeology if they are in receipt of other funding and which scholarship they intend to keep.
3. An NMS WH Scholarship cannot be deferred and must be taken up in the academic year that it is awarded for.