

- Master of Laws (LL.M.) programme in International Maritime Law
- Master of Humanities (M. Hum.) programme in International Maritime Legislation

The International Maritime Law Institute will offer full funding for the selected Government nominated candidates meeting the selection criteria (under the age of 40). Fifty percent of the places available are reserved for deserving women candidates.

The LL.M. programme is open exclusively to graduates in Law while the M. Hum. Programme is open to candidates holding a degree in any other discipline related to International Maritime Law. The programmes are particularly suitable to candidates already working in a Maritime field such as a relevant government department, a shipping company, port authority or other organisation or research institution concerned with shipping and maritime affairs.

The deadline for the submission of applications is 30 March 2019. The information on the programmes, admission and application form for nominated and self-financed candidates can be found at the following link: <http://www.imli.org/programmes-and-courses/how-apply-1>.

Further information about the Institute can be obtained from the Institute's website at: <http://www.imli.org>. Any questions may be directed to Ms. Elda Kazara-Belja (Admissions Officer) on her telephone number: +356 21 310 816 ext. 107 or by e-mail at: admissions@imli.org.

Home About Us Programmes and Courses Publications Directories Donors Useful Links IMLI Shop Contact Us

Search

How to Apply

All candidates must complete the Application Form. This form must be accompanied by:

(a) the Nomination Form duly completed, signed and stamped by the nominating authority (in case of a nominated candidate);

(b) copies of the University degrees held by the candidate officially authenticated by the University concerned;

(c) a copy of the certificate of proficiency in English held by the candidate from either the International English Language testing System (IELTS); Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency; Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL); or a statement by the candidate explaining the reasons why he deems he should be exempt from presenting such certificate;

(d) the Medical Report Form duly completed by a registered Government Medical Practitioner;

(e) a letter of intent written by the candidate stating the candidate's reasons for applying to the LL.M. programme and his/her career objective. Candidates may use the Motivation Form included in the Application Package;

(f) two letters of reference covering the candidate's ability to undertake the Master's programme. Referees should be persons who are not related to the candidate and who are familiar with the candidate's character and qualifications. Referees should use, where possible, the Reference Form provided in the Application Package;

(g) a non-refundable application and processing fee of €150;

(h) candidates who require financial assistance must also submit the Fellowship Application Form duly completed and signed by the applicant and the nominating authority. Application forms wherein financial assistance is required should be accompanied by payment of a non-refundable fellowship application fee of €200 in the form of a bank draft. This fellowship application fee is in addition to the processing fee of €150 provided for in paragraph (h) above. The fellowship application fee covers all administration costs incurred in approaching potential sponsors and seeking fellowship funding for the candidates.

For further details, please contact:

Ms. Elda Kazara-Belja
Lecturer/Admissions Officer
IMO International Maritime Law Institute
P.O. Box 31, Msida, MSD 01, Malta
Tel.: +356 21 319343, 310816, ext. 107
Fax: +356 21 343092
E-mail: admissions@imli.org

Applications should be sent to:

About IMLI

IMLI Governing Bodies

Programmes and Courses

Prospective Students

Library

Maritime Law Treaties and Documents

Why Malta?

Donors